

BIO- Katherine Culhane

Associate Director/ Program Manager

FSBDC at Indian River State College

Entrepreneurship Development Institute

Katherine is a consultant with the Small Business Development Center supporting small to medium businesses in their goals to accelerate their growth and achieve their full potential.

Her background includes a long career in banking that comprises roles in management, business development, commercial lending and private banking.

She has a Master's of Science in Organizational Learning and Leadership from, Barry University and is a Certified Professional Behavioral Analyst with DISC- Style Insights as well as a SHRM Senior Certified Professional with the Society of Human Resources.

In addition, she is a Certified teacher of the Enneagram, a transformative personality tool and Facilitator of the "Nine Domains Approach" which is a holistic method of increasing the health and sustainability of systems, teams and groups.